

Source Water Protection through Comprehensive Planning for Local Governments and Drinking Water
Operators Agenda
September 29, 2010 - Soda Springs, Idaho

9:00 - 9:15	Introduction and Welcome	DEQ
9:15 - 10:15	Session 1: Ground Water and Source Water Vulnerability and Risks in Idaho Source Water Overview Source Water Vulnerability and Degradation in Southeast Idaho: What We All Need to Know	DEQ
10:15 - 10:30	Break and Poster Session
10:30 - 12:00	Session 2: Source Water Protection Resources Local Examples of Successful Source Water Protection Activities: From the Operator's Mouth Source Water Protection Grants and Local Examples Source Water Assessment Website Source Water Protection Online Resources	DEQ
12:00 - 1:00	Lunch and Video
1:00 - 2:40	Concurrent Session 3: Comprehensive Planning for Local Government Officials Introduction: What is planning? Planning Overview: Importance, Processes, and Outcomes Planning in Idaho: Land Use Planning Act, Subdivision Act, Area of City Impact, Impact Fees	Diane Kushlan
1:00 - 2:40	Concurrent Session 3: Drinking Water Protection for Drinking Water Operators Introduction: What is planning? (joint with local government officials) Drinking Water Protection Plans and Other Options Drinking Water Operator Resources Advocating for Your System	Diane Kushlan, AICP and DEQ
2:40 - 3:00	Break and Poster Session
3:00 - 4:30	Session 4: Source Water Protection through Comp Plans Exercise: Review and Critique Local Comprehensive Plans and Development Regulations Planning Tools for Addressing Water Quality Discussion of Local Water Issues and How These Tools Might Be Used	Diane Kushlan
4:30 - 4:45	Concluding Remarks and Evaluations	DEQ